

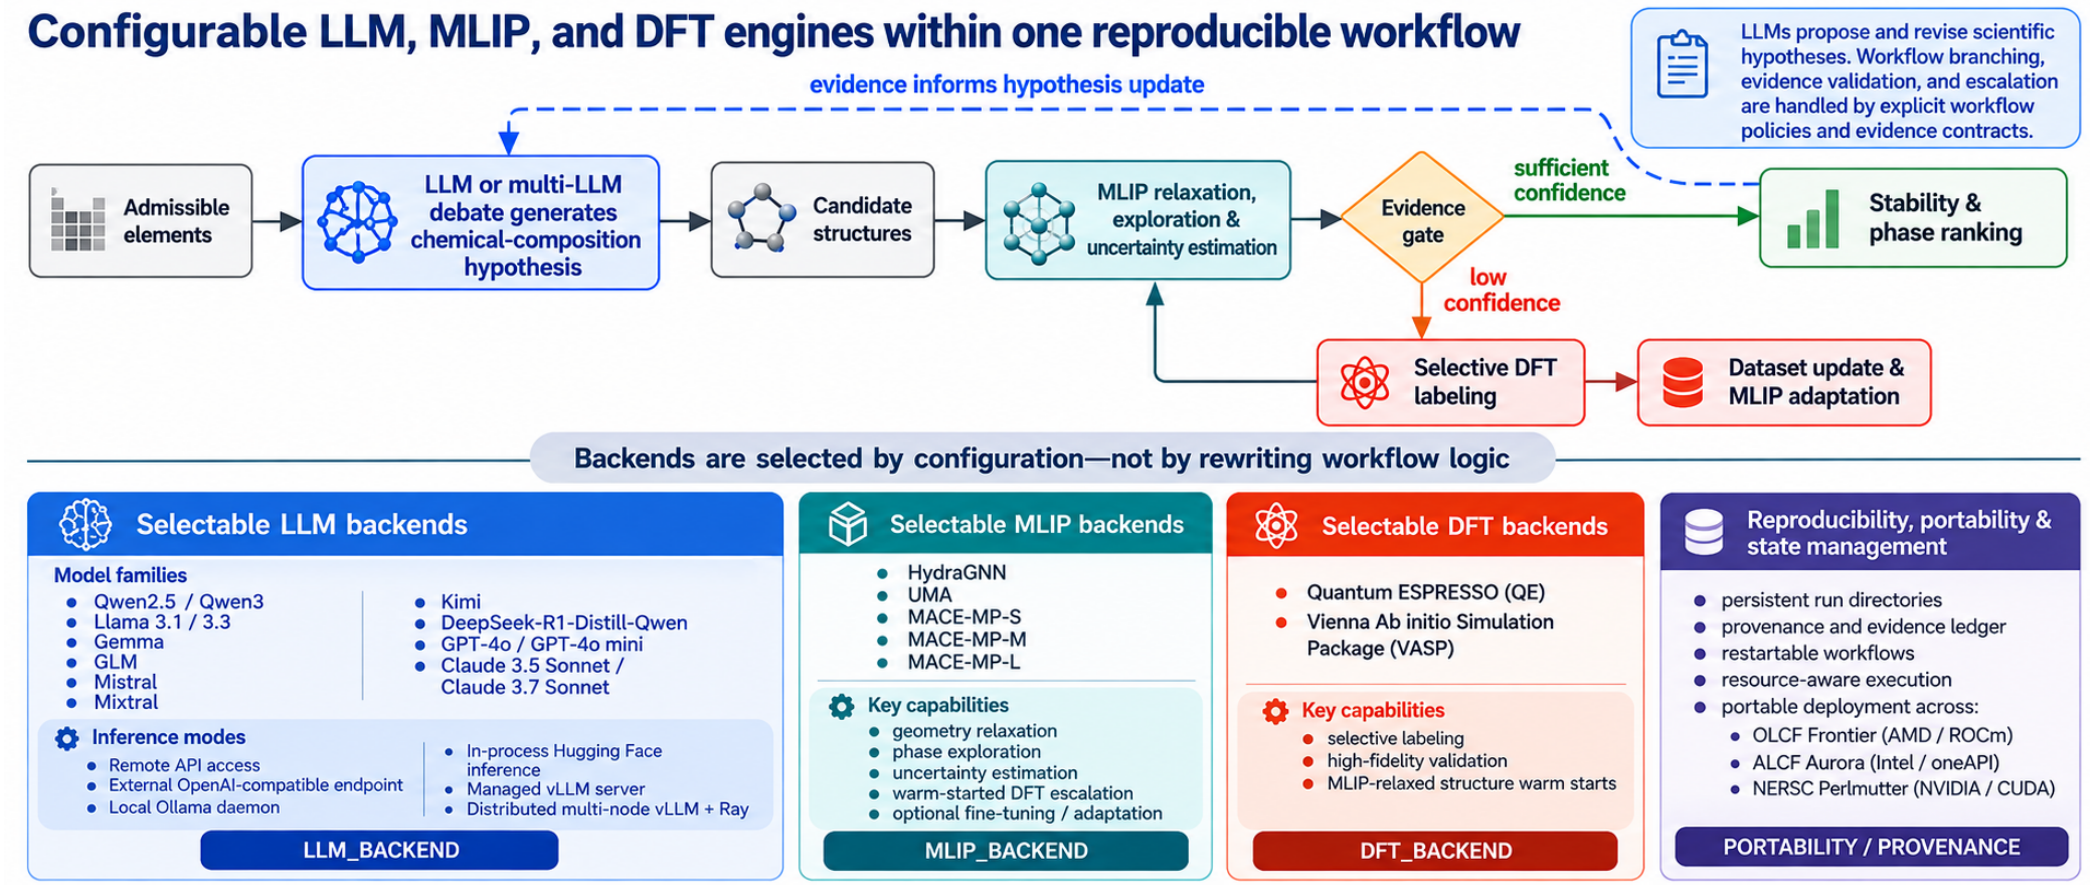

Figure 1. Configurable LLM, MLIP, and DFT engines within one reproducible workflow.

The workflow integrates hypothesis formulation, multi-fidelity calculations, evidence validation, and optional model adaptation. The lower panels summarize model-provider choices, HPC deployment, and provenance facilities. Software support does not imply that every backend and supercomputer combination has been qualified numerically.